

Tyne Bridge Publishing

For the best local history on Tyneside

Catalogue Autumn-Winter 2010

Turn a new page

Newcastle Libraries

Newcastle
City Council

Tyne Bridge Publishing
Newcastle Libraries & Information Service
PO Box 88
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE99 1DX

Telephone: 0191 2774174 direct line

Fax: 0191 2774137

email: tynebridge@newcastle.gov.uk

UK postage: £1 per book for the first 3 books.

But only £4 postage for 4 books or more.

Cheques payable to 'City of Newcastle upon Tyne'

To order by credit card phone us weekdays 9.00am-4.30pm

See the full range of titles at Newcastle City Library

Find us on the web!

www.tynebridgepublishing.co.uk

All descriptions in this catalogue are correct at time of going to press.

Prices are subject to alteration without notice.

Bargain prices only apply to books sold through this catalogue,
or at Newcastle Libraries

Trade discounts and special discounts for libraries, schools and colleges.

© City of Newcastle upon Tyne

Newcastle Libraries & Information Service, 2010

BE IN A NEW BOOK ON 1970s NEWCASTLE!

Remember 'Get Carter', the three day week, the Jubilee, loons, space hoppers, and glam rock? Did you live, work or play in Newcastle during those heady years, 1970-1979? If so, please get in touch!

Send us your memories (500 words or less please, but as many entries as you like); we'd love you to lend us your photos too (we promise to return them).

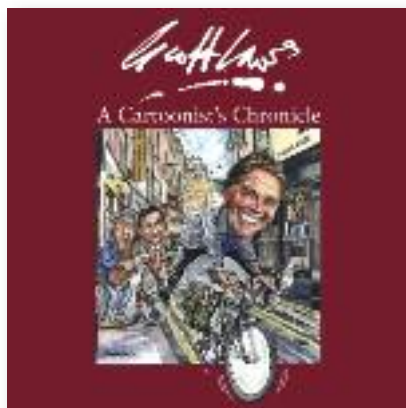

A Cartoonist's Chronicle

Geoff Laws

Geoff's finest and funniest cartoons from 35 years on Newcastle's newspapers, his remarkable take on the people and events that made the news on Tyneside, and his account of how it all came about.

£10 paperback 120 pages
Fully illustrated including full colour
ISBN 9781857952018

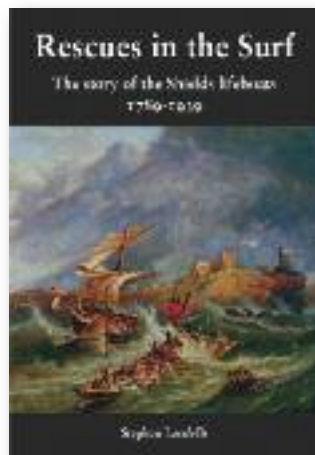

Rescues in the Surf: the story of the Shields lifeboats 1789-1939

Stephen Landells

Who really invented the rowing lifeboat? What dangers faced the brave men who tackled the treacherous seas to rescue shipwrecked sailors? Plus the history of the Tyne Lifeboat Institution and Volunteer Life Brigades, and a full list of shipwrecks. With a foreword by the Duke of Northumberland.

£12.99 paperback 300 pages
Archive photos, and maps
ISBN 9781857951493

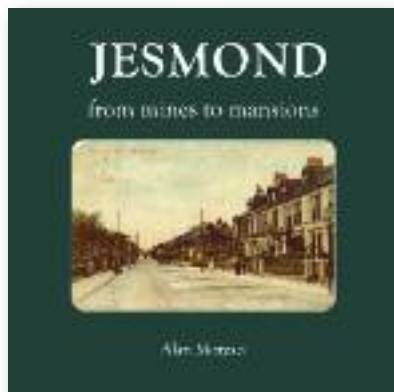

Out November 2010

Jesmond: from mines to mansions

Alan Morgan

Discover the history of the leafy suburb of Jesmond through the eyes of City Guide Alan Morgan, on foot or by armchair. This new exploration is dedicated to the memory of local legend Jimmy Donald.

£8.99 paperback 120 pages
Archive photos, and maps
ISBN 9781857952001

It's My Life! 1960s Newcastle

The 1960s... In Newcastle, it was a time when everything was possible and everything was changing. From the Club A 'Gogo to the new highrise flats, people were on the move. Recapture that electrifying atmosphere through this evocative mix of memories and pictures. Contributors include John Steel of The Animals and Lindisfarne's Ray Laidlaw.

£10 204 pages, paperback
 Crammed with photos, including full colour section.
 ISBN 9781857951387

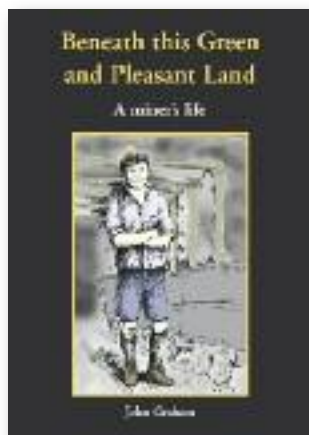

Beneath this Green and Pleasant Land

John Graham

From Pit lad to mining official, John Graham saw life at the coal face at first hand. His dramatic story tells of the dangers, the characters, the friendships and hard graft of a working life underground.

£7.99 220 pages, paperback
 Line drawings and diagrams
 ISBN 9781857951431

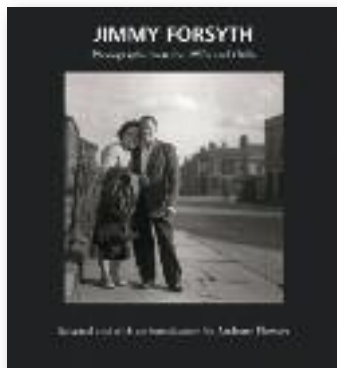

Jimmy Forsyth: Photographs from the 1950s and 1960s

Selected and with an introduction by Anthony Flowers

Jimmy Forsyth bought his first camera in 1954 and began to photograph the streets and people around Scotswood Road. His moving images capture a working-class community at the moment of its disappearance.

In association with Tyne & Wear Archives
 £8.99 140 pages, paperback
 over 150 photographs
 ISBN 9781857951332

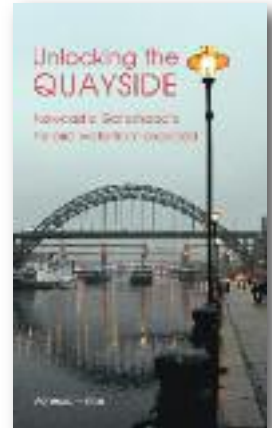

Unlocking the Quayside: Newcastle Gateshead's historic waterfront explored

Vanessa Histon

The story of Newcastle Gateshead Quays from the days when the docks were packed with ships and goods, to the exciting transformations of the 21st century. Take a walk on the quayside!

Supported by Insite Environments and Mott MacDonald

£5.99 96 pages, paperback, full colour
Archive and new photos, and maps
ISBN 9781857951578

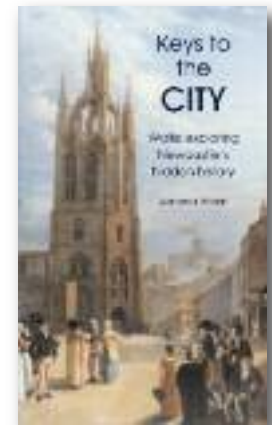

Keys to the City: walks exploring Newcastle's hidden history

Vanessa Histon

Step back into history with five linked walks. Explore the medieval defence system, discover where the Georgians enjoyed themselves, follow the footsteps of Victorian shoppers, and find some contemporary art. This book unlocks some of the clues to Newcastle's past.

Supported by Insite Environments

£6.99 112 pages, paperback, fullcolour
Archive and new photos, and maps
ISBN 9781857951141

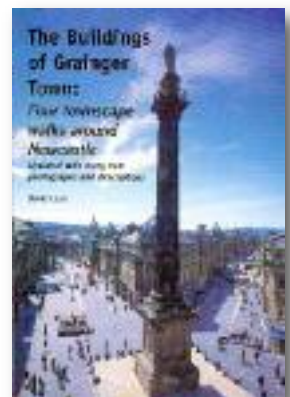

The Buildings of Grainger Town: Four Townscape Walks around Newcastle

David Lovie

Explore the history and architecture of Tyneside Classical and the city centre..

Published by Grainger Town Partnership in association with North east Environmental Education Forum.

£8.95 96 pages, paperback
Fully illustrated
ISBN 9780954753801

Crossing the Tyne

AWARD WINNING BOOK

Frank Manders and Richard Potts

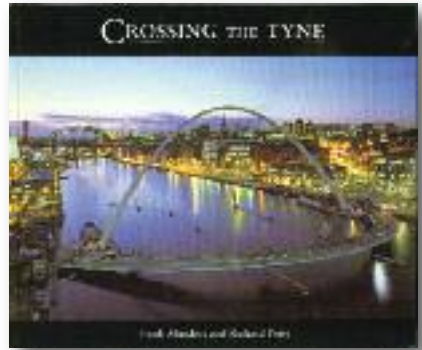

All the crossings of the Tyne from the river mouth to Ryton from the Roman Pons Aelius to the Gateshead Millennium Bridge, 2000 years of crossing the river (over and under the water), great engineering feats are described.

£8.50 128 pages, paperback

archive and new photos plus 24 page colour section

ISBN: 9781857951129

Supported by Gateshead Council, Edmund Nuttall Ltd., Mott MacDonald, University of Newcastle, Northumbria University

Cinemas of Newcastle

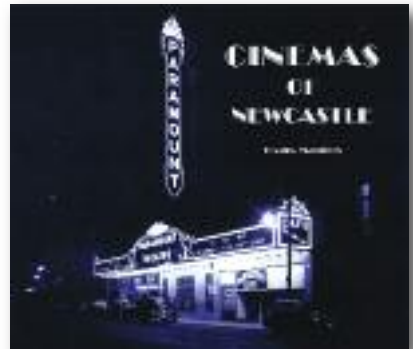

Frank Manders

'A step back in time through the circle and the stalls' to revisit the varying fortunes of the city's cinemas from silver screen days - the glory days, and the decline of 'going to the pictures' in Newcastle.

£12.95 168 pages paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951523

Tyneside's Finest ... a miscellany

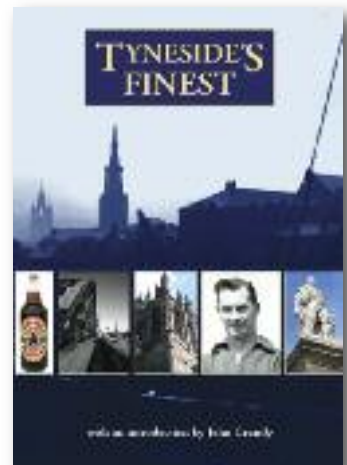

Introduced by John Grundy

Over 100 pieces by 50 Tyneside writers covering an extraordinary range of people places and things – industry, entertainment, philosophy, crime, culture, beer ...

£9.99 208 pages, paperback, full colour, archive and new photos

ISBN 9781857951097

Also available on audiotape or CD from Tyne Sound News: tel 0191 2614121

A City of Palaces: Richard Grainger and the making of Newcastle upon Tyne

Ian Ayris

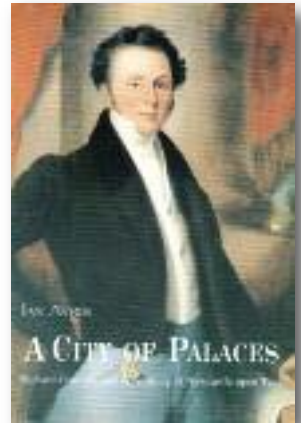

The story of Richard Grainger who transformed the 'coal hole of the north' into the elegant classical city which is the pride of the region.

£6.99 88 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857950632

Supported by the Grainger Town Project and English Partnerships.

John Dobson: Architect of the North East

Thomas Faulkner and Andrew Greg

The life and work of the North East's most eminent architect. This richly illustrated book is set to become the standard work on Dobson.

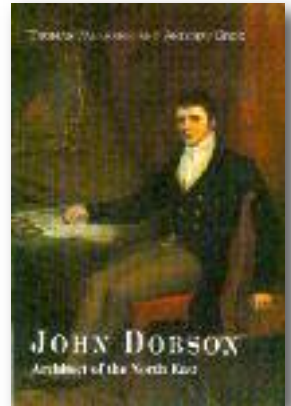

£9.50 208 pages, paperback.

Archive and new photos full colour section

ISBN: 9781857951318

In association with Tyne & Wear Museums.

Supported by the Grainger Town Project and FaulknerBrown Architects.

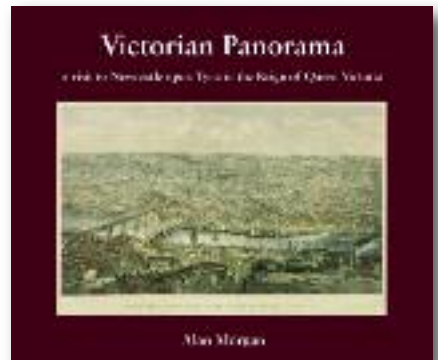

Victorian Panorama: A Visit to Newcastle upon Tyne in the reign of Queen Victoria

Alan Morgan

Explore a vanished Newcastle through the eyes of Victorian artist John Storey. City Guide Alan Morgan explores the detail revealed in the picture and takes you on a time travelling tour.

£9.99 108 pages, paperback
full colour maps, plans, photos

ISBN 978185795104 2

Beyond the Grave: Exploring Newcastle's Burial Grounds

AWARD WINNING BOOK

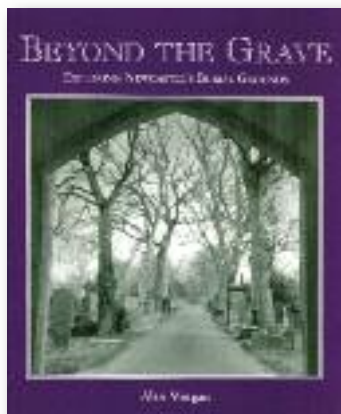

Alan Morgan

An exploration of the burial grounds and graveyards of Newcastle's four parish churches, the great suburban cemeteries of the 19th century, their occupants, and their histories. An offbeat way of finding out about Newcastle in the past!

£7.99 180 pages, paperback

Archive and new photos, maps and plans.

ISBN 9781857951028 Supported by Strettle of Newcastle Ltd.

A Fine and Private Place: Jesmond Old Cemetery

Alan Morgan

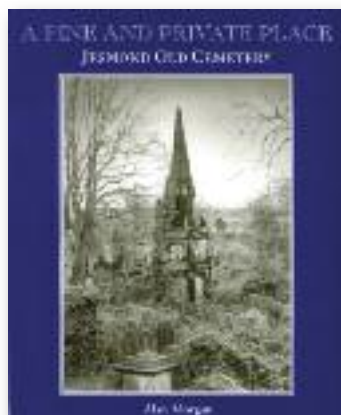

The remarkable story of Newcastle's own necropolis, this 'Highgate of the North' contains a wealth of social history describing over 100 of the occupants of Jesmond Old Cemetery.

£5.99 80 pages, paperback.

Archive and new photos, maps and plans.

ISBN 9781 857951554

Supported by Strettle of Newcastle Ltd.

Otherworld North East: Ghosts and Hauntings Explored

Tony Liddell

Forty chilling North East ghost stories including 16 accounts of real-life ghost investigations. Dare you read this book...? Real ghosts inside...

£9.99 128 pages, paperback

Archive and new photos, maps and plans.

ISBN 9781 857951127

The Ingenious Mr Avison: Making Music and Money in Eighteenth-Century Newcastle

Roz Southey, Margaret Maddison, David Hughes

Charles Avison (1708-1770) was a talented composer whose long-neglected music has enjoyed a revival by the internationally famous Avison Ensemble. This timely book brings Avison's world to life and tells his fascinating story.

£10 148 pages, paperback

Archive and new photos, some full colour
ISBN 978 1857951295

In association with The Avison Ensemble

Thomas Bewick

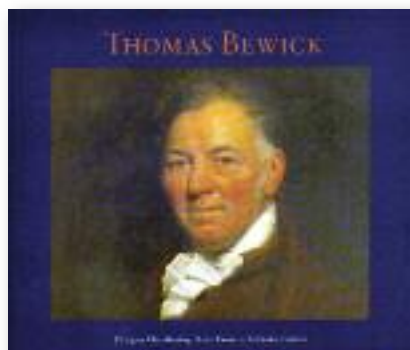

Douglas Glendinning, Anna Flowers, Anthony Flowers

A fully illustrated biography of the famous artist and engraver for the general reader. Includes beautiful colour reproductions of the rarely seen watercolours.

£6.99 60 pages paperback

Archive illustrations and engravings

ISBN: 9781857951714 Supported by Heritage Lottery Fund

Collingwood: Northumberland's Heart of Oak

Max Adams

Admiral Lord Collingwood was Northumberland's own hero at the Battle of Trafalgar. His life story is crammed with tales of dramatic shipboard life.

New edition for the bicentenary

£7.99 84 pages, paperback

Archive and new illustrations

ISBN 9781857951325

The Great Northern Miners

Ken and Jean Smith

From the earliest days to the closure of Ellington in 2005, this book tells the story of the men and boys who toiled underground beneath the streets and fields of Northumberland and County Durham to win the coal.

£12.95 192 pages, paperback

archive and new photos

ISBN 9781 857951196

Supported by Thompsons Solicitors

An Alarming Accident, or every glass tells a story: the forgotten engraved glass of North East England

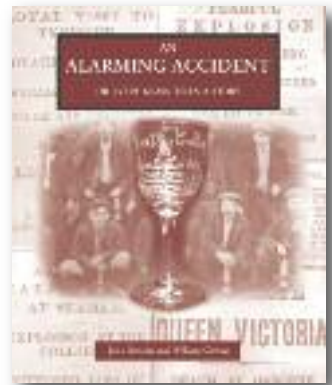

John Brooks and William Cowan

Modest memorials on Victorian glassware provide fascinating insights into the lives of North East working communities of the late 19th century. A treat for the curious and the collector.

£7.99 96 pages, paperback,

archive photos

ISBN 9781857951240

Stephenson Power: George and Robert Stephenson

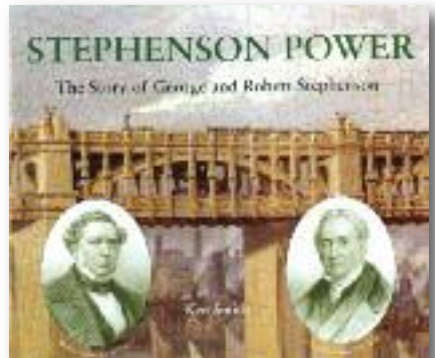

Ken Smith

Tyneside-born George Stephenson, and his son Robert, were pioneers of the steam locomotive and railways, earning a lasting place in history for their achievements. Stephenson Power tells the story of these great North East engineers.

£4.99 paperback 40 pages.

Fully illustrated.

ISBN: 9781857951868

Emperor of Industry: Lord Armstrong of Cragside

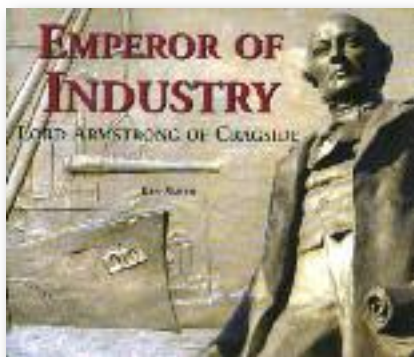

Ken Smith

Ken Smith's life of Lord Armstrong tells the story of Newcastle's industrial giant who founded Elswick Shipyard, built the Swing Bridge, and made his home at Cragside in Northumberland

£4.99 48 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951271

Armstrong's River Empire: Tyne Shipyards that supplied the World

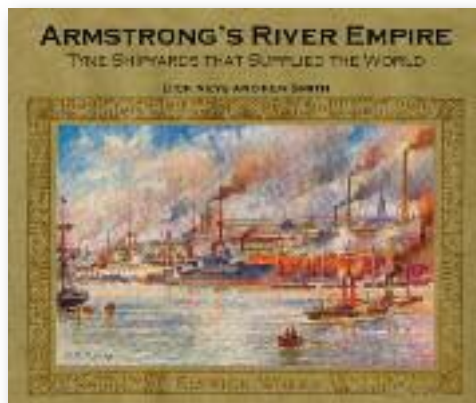

Dick Keys and Ken Smith

The story of the revolutionary icebreakers and many other ships delivered all over the world from Elswick and Low Walker shipyards. Includes 12 pages of unique colour reproductions of launch cards.

£10 108 pages, paperback

Archive photos, colour section

ISBN 9781857951486

Turbinia: Charles Parsons and his Ocean Greyhound

Ken Smith

The exciting tale of the world's first steam-turbine driven vessel and its remarkable inventor, engineer Charles Parsons.

£6.99 54 pages, paperback.

archive and new photos, plus colour

ISBN: 9781857951394

Expanded new edition, with Tyne & Wear Archives & Museums

Lost Shipyards of the Tyne

Ron French and Ken Smith

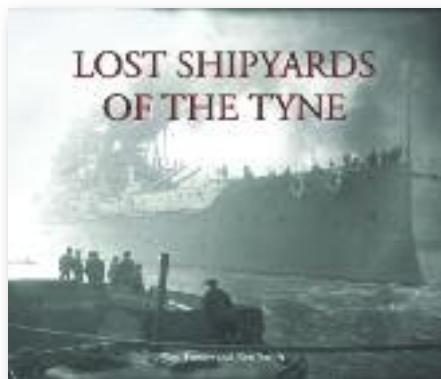

From the earliest days, the skill of Tyne shipbuilders went unrivalled. This thrilling account draws upon the memories of workers to tell the story of the now vanished shipyards, including the Walker Naval Yard, Hawthorn Leslie, Readhead's, Cleland's, T. & W. Smith and many others.

£6.99 96 pages, paperback

archive photos and maps

AWARD WINNING BOOK

ISBN 9781857951226 Supported by Swan Hunter (Tyneside) Ltd

Swan Hunter: The Pride and the Tears

Ian Rae and Ken Smith

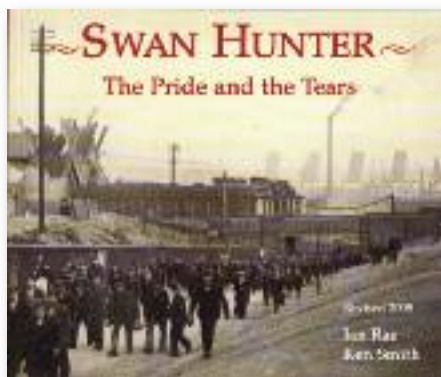

The story of the Tyne's most famous shipyard is told here, with illustrations from the official Swan Hunter Archive, and memories of the workers.

£5.99 48 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951066

Supported by Swan Hunter (Tyneside) Ltd

Palmers of Jarrow

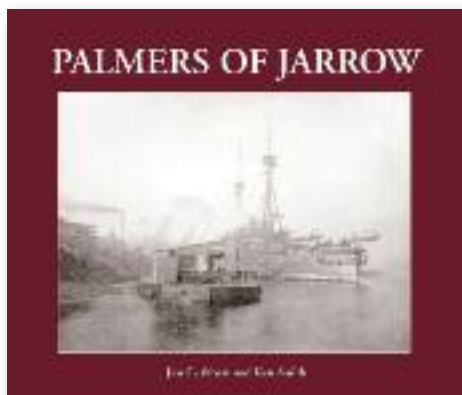

Jim Cuthbert and Ken Smith

The history of the famous Tyne shipbuilding company which launched over 900 vessels between 1851 and 1933. As well as the ships, the spotlight is thrown on the lives of the workers of Jarrow.

£5.99 48 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951967

Queens of the Tyne: the river's great liners 1888-1973

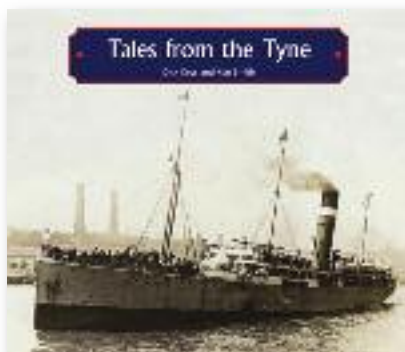

Ken Smith

Celebrating the 100th birthday of Mauretania this book tells the stories of many superb Tyne-built passenger ships.

£6.99 72 pages, paperback.

archive photos

ISBN 9781857951134

Tales from the Tyne

Dick Keys and Ken Smith

Work and play on the river in the days when the Tyne was a thriving port at the heart of the great North-East coalfield - tugs, colliers, steamers, pilot cutters and floating cranes.

£6.99 84 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN:9781 857951585

Wallsend Reflections

Jean and Ken Smith

The famous ship-building town at the end of the Wall, with memories from the people who worked there.

£6.99 80 pages, paperback.

archive photos and maps

With North Tyneside Libraries.

ISBN: 9781 857951424

Tall Ships on the Tyne

Dick Keys and Ken Smith

The story of the Tyne's graceful tall ships from the earliest days.

£3.99 (was £6.99)

72 pages, paperback, archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951370

Hidden Chains: the Slavery Business and North East England 1600-1860

John Charlton

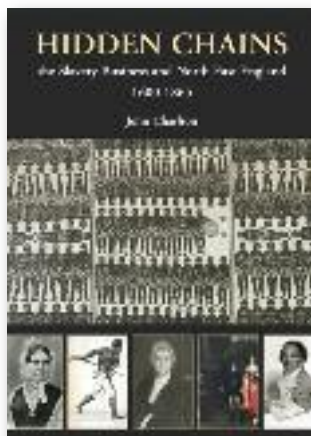

From bonded labourers to wealthy plantation owners, and sailors on the slave ships, North East people were involved with the Atlantic trade. They also played a vital role in the fight for Abolition. This book tells the whole compelling story.

£10 180 pages, paperback

full colour new and archive illustrations

ISBN 9781857951233

With Tyne & Wear Museums

Victorian Villains: Prisoners from Newcastle Gaol 1871-73

Barry Redfern

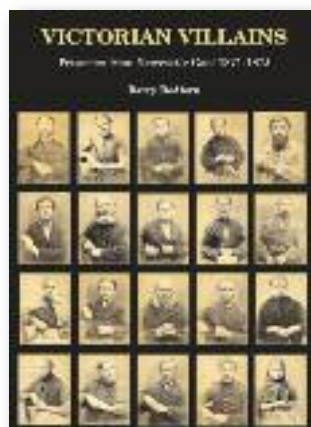

Case studies and fascinating accounts of crime and punishment from Newcastle's earliest police photographic records. Retired Chief Superintendent Barry Redfern explores criminals, victims and police detection work.

£6.99 156 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN 9781857951080

With Tyne & Wear Archives

Down our Streets: Newcastle's street names explored

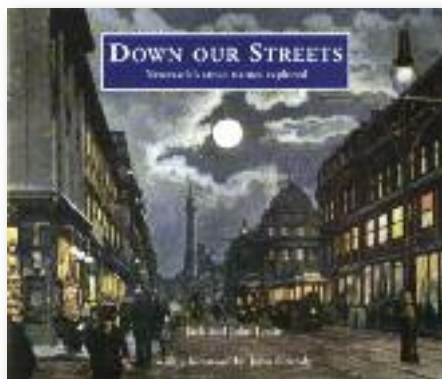

Jack and John Leslie

The stories behind over 100 of Newcastle's street names. Introduced by John Grundy who says 'this excellent guide ... will save my bacon and satisfy thousands of enquiring minds, including my own'.

£5.99 48 pages, paperback

archive photos

ISBN: 9781857951912

The Lambton Worm

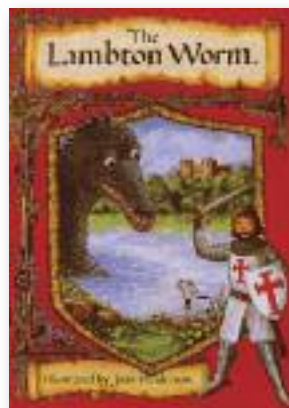

Illustrated and retold by Joan Henderson

A favourite traditional tale brought to life in verse with colourful illustrations. Includes the music and all the traditional words to this well-known song.

£2.95 24 pages, paperback

full colour throughout

ISBN: 978 0902653689

Dancing with the Devil and Other True Tales of Northern Witchcraft

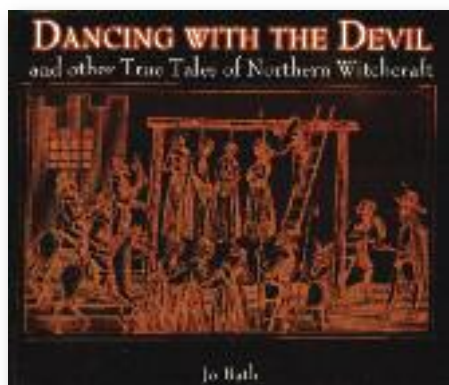

Jo Bath

Eyewitness accounts and historical sources explore cases of bewitched children, mysterious illnesses and terrifying apparitions from the 17th century. Plus spells, charms, and hocus pocus from the dark days of history.

£3 (was £5.99) 48 pages, paperback

archive illustrations

ISBN: 9781857951660

For the younger reader

Walking with Witches (a satisfyingly creepy read ... Jill Murphy)

Lynn Huggins-Cooper

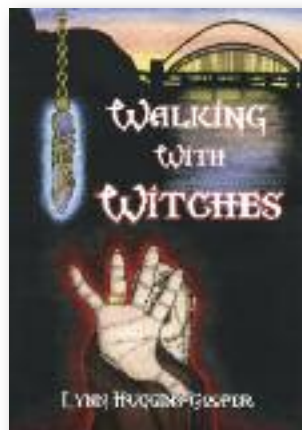

Eleanor and Isabel investigate a mysterious message, a witch's jewel ... and a dangerous presence from Newcastle's 17th century. Can they outwit the shadowy figure from the past?

A fast-moving adventure for ages 9-14.

Illustrations by Nigel Brewis

£3 (was £5.99) 160 pages, paperback

ISBN 9781857951288

Old photographs reveal the past.

Bygone Bell's Close & Lemington	£1.25
Bygone Benwell Revisited	£1.50
Bygone County Durham (large size)	£1.50
Bygone High Heaton	£1.25
Bygone Kenton	£1.50
Bygone Lower Ouseburn	£1.95
Bygone Newburn	£1.25
Bygone Sandyford & Cradlewell	£1.95
Bygone Scotswood	£1.25
Bygone Shieldfield	£1.95
Bygone West Quayside and the Close	£1.95
Bygone Walbottle	£1.50
Bygone Westgate Road	£1.95

210 x 147mm, 24 pages, 21 photos

These little booklets are going out of print but new booklets on the suburbs will be in preparation soon.

Bygone days of Longbenton Vol 2

W.G. Elliott

A look back at Longbenton, Benton, Forest hall, West Moor, Killingworth and Palmersville through old photographs.

Price: £5.99 paperback, 88 pages

ISBN: 0953563316

History of the Parish of Wallsend

William Richardson

A facsimile reprint of William Richardson's History of Wallsend first published in 1923, this book is a standard tool for local history researchers. All aspects of Wallsend, Howdon, and Willington Quay, the rise and decline of local industries are documented, alongside vignettes of local families.

Price: £18.99 hardback, 538 pages with foldout maps and plans, and illustrations.

ISBN: 9781857950342

Please add £2 postage for this large book.

